STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Fishing is an important occupation for lakhs of people in our country since ancient times. The fish is processed and exported to many countries thereby generating a considerable monetary benefit to the country. Fishing industry provides employment to lakhs of people directly or indirectly. Fish is consumed by many people and fish oil is also used in making medicines.

Lakhs of fishermen are involved in this occupation. But the difficulties the fishermen are facing are manifold. Fishing is seasonal occupation in the sense that fishermen cannot go into sea throughout the year for fishing. There is also no facility for processing, storage, marketing, transportation and export of fish. Moreover, a fisherman has to pay huge rent for boats, etc. which he has to hire during fishing and on a given day, he may not earn anything. Besides, in the recent times, fishermen are facing another grave situation of being fired upon, killed or attacked either by mistake or deliberately by defence forces of another country on the plea of intruding into the territorial waters of that country. There have been many instances when our fishermen were killed or captured or imprisoned and tortured. The chances of being kidnapped by pirates on the high seas also add to their problems.

No compensation or subsistence allowance is given by the Government in such cases. A mechanism for the welfare of fishermen is absolutely essential and the Bill aims at in that direction.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for setting up of a Fishermen Welfare Board. Clause 4 provides that the Board shall formulate a scheme for the welfare of fishermen. Clause 5 provides for compensation to a fisherman in case of death or serious injury. Clause 6 provides for subsistence allowance to the family of fishermen while they are imprisoned in a foreign country. Clause 7 provides for grants by the Central Government. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is likely to involve a recurring expenditure of about rupees ten thousand crore per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure of rupees five thousand crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 8 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Nearly forty-five per cent. of the total population of our country lives below the poverty line. Their income is meagre and they fight for their subsistence throughout their lives. They live hand to mouth existence and cannot even think of providing elementary education to their children. Since promotion of universal education and establishment of classless and creedless society is one of the basic aims of our Constitution, the Government at the national level as well as at the State level should make provisions for free educational facilities and provide books, uniform, writing materials, transportation and hostel facilities free of cost to the children of persons living below poverty line, that is to say, whose total family income is below twenty thousand rupees per month, so that they could get proper education and better job opportunities to raise their standard of living. It will be a major step in eradicating illiteracy from the country. It will also help such children to grow and compete with children of higher class.

The cost of education and the cost of living has gone up and a ceiling of rupees twenty thousand per month seems to be reasonable. Keeping this in view, a provision has been made in the Bill to provide bright students belonging to very poor families a scholarship of rupees one thousand per mensem.

Hence this Bill.

NEW DELHI;

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for free education including medical and technical education, etc. by the appropriate Government to children born of parents living below poverty line. It also seeks to provide for facilities such as free hostel, uniform, meals etc. to such children. Clause 4 provides that the appropriate Government shall provide scholarship upto a maximum of rupees one thousand per mensem in deserving cases, to such children. The Central Government has to bear the expenditure in respect of Union territories in implementing the provisions of the Bill. The respective State Government shall bear the expenditure in respect of their State. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a recurring expenditure to the tune of rupees ten thousand crore is likely to be incurred per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure of rupees twenty thousand crore is also likely to be incurred.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 6 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. These rules will relate to matters of detail only. The delegation of legislative powers is, therefore, of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Prices of drugs and medicines are on the increase. The prices are increased arbitrarily by manufacturers and traders. People, especially poor people are affected by the exorbitant cost of drugs. They are not able to afford the medicines. At present there is no check on the prices of drugs. Medical practitioners with the lure of money and costly gifts from manufacturers generally prescribe costly medicines which common man cannot afford. They should instead prescribe generic drugs.

The Bill seeks to constitute a Committee to—

- (i) fix the prices of drugs;
- (ii) promote the use of generic drugs; and
- (iii) determine the standard of drugs.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

BILL NO. 91 OF 2012

A Bill to provide for the Establishment of a Permanent Bench of the High Court of Kerala at Kozhikode.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the High Court of Kerala (Establishment of a Permanent Bench at Kozhikode) Act, 2012.

Establishment of a Permanent
Bench of the High Court of Kerala at Kozhikode.

2. There shall be established a permanent Bench of the High Court of Kerala at Kozhikode and such Judges of the High Court of Kerala, being not less than three in number, as the Chief Justice of that High Court may from time to time nominate, shall sit at Kozhikode in order to exercise the jurisdiction and power for the time being vested in that High Court in respect of cases arising in the districts of Kasaragod, Kannur, Wayanadu, Kozhikode, Malappuram and Palakkad.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The High Court of Kerala is located at Ernakulam. Kerala, being a vast State, people have to travel long distances with a lot of inconveniences in order to reach the High Court at Ernakulam to pursue their cases. This is a time consuming and costly exercise. For long, there has been a demand from the people of the State that a Bench of the High Court be set up at Kozhikode which is a very important city in the State of Kerala.

If a permanent Bench of the Kerala High Court is established at Kozhikode, it would greatly help the people living in Kasaragod, Kannur, Wayanadu, Kozhikode, Malappuram and Palakkad districts to pursue their cases in the High Court at significantly low cost and also the advocates based in and around the city of Kozhikode.

Hence this Bill.

3. (1) The Central Government shall frame a Scheme for payment of compensation to persons attacked by wild animals.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the scheme shall also include:—

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In the recent days, there have been several cases of attacks by wild animals on innocent persons resulting in death or serious injury to those persons. There have also been instances when property and crops were damaged by wild animals.

It has also been seen that the victims of attack by wild animals are mostly poor people. After such attacks, it often happens that they either die or suffer permanent disability. In either case, their dependents have to fight for their survival. At present there is no provision for payment of compensation to the persons attacked by wild animals. There is a provision for punishment for cruelty to wild animals but there is no provision for compensation if wild animals attack innocent persons.

Therefore, a provision, with due safeguards, has been made for payment of compensation to persons attacked by wild animals.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The level of pollution in rivers across India has been on the rise despite the launch of dedicated projects to cleanse rivers. Among various causes of pollution of rivers and streams, municipal sewage is today a major contributor. It is ironical that while new projects are being conceived to effectively cleanse our rivers, various authorities are adding to the problem by discharging untreated sewage into rivers.

The main cause for discharge of sewage into rivers is the lack of treatment capacity. Even after spending huge funds under various action plans, there is a huge deficit in treatment capacity. To make matters worse, the existing treatment plants are being underutilized resulting in inefficient treatment of sewage. The Central and the State Boards constituted under the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 have not been able to make much headway in checking water pollution caused by municipal sewage.

Therefore, in view of alarming level of pollution of rivers in India and increasing contribution of municipal sewage is accentuating the problem, the Bill proposes to amend the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 to achieve the following objectives:—

(i) constitution of the National River Conservation Authority and the State River Conservation Authorities to lay down parameters for effluent quality for sewage treatment plants and to supervise and control the functions of the Central Board and the State Boards in preventing water pollution caused by sewage;

(ii) assessment of requirement of sewage treatment capacity by National River Conservation Authority and the State River Conservation Authorities so as to facilitate further capacity creation to bridge the gap between the existing capacity and the required capacity;

(iii) making prior approval of the National River Conservation Authority or the State River Conservation Authority compulsory for granting exemption to a sewerage authority for using a stream or a well for disposal of polluting matters, etc.; and

(iv) prohibiting discharge of sewage and other polluting matters into a stream and providing rigorous penalties for contravention of the provisions of the Act.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 5 of the Bill provides for the constitution of the National River Conservation Authority. Clause 7 provides that the Central Government shall make such contributions to the National River Conservation Authority as it may think necessary to enable the Authority to perform its functions.

The Bill, therefore, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a sum of rupees fifty crore would be involved as recurring expenditure per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees one hundred crore is also likely to be involved.

BILL NO. 124 OF 2012*A Bill further to amend the Spices Board Act, 1986.*BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—*Short title and commencement.1. (1) This Act may be called the Spices Board (Amendment) Act, 2012.(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.*Omission of section 16.*2. Section 16 of the Spices Board Act, 1986 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) shall be omitted. 10 of 1986.Omission of section 28.*3. Section 28 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Spices Board Act, 1986 provides for constitution of a Board for the development of export of spices and for the control of cardamom industry including the control of cultivation of cardamom. Section 16 of the Act empowers the Central Government to fix minimum and maximum price of cardamom and also control the distribution of cardamom to protect the small and medium cardamom growers.

As per rule, the entire small cardamom has to be routed through auctions and the growers are not allowed to sell the cardamom in the open market, except to dealers licensed by the Spices Board. Over a period of time, dispute arose between the Spices Board and the e-auctioneer over the minimum bid value in cardamom auction. As agreement could not be reached between the Spices Board and the auctioneer, the auction of cardamom has been totally stopped which has adversely affected the small and the medium cardamom growers.

The small cardamom is the only cash crop controlled by such stringent guidelines and these rules force the growers to resort to the auction process thus restricting the opening up of alternate channels to sell their produce. As the major market places of cardamom are confined to certain geographic pockets, the number of dealers who actively involved in the trade of small cardamom in the primary market is limited and this add on to their bargaining power. Thus, the growers are forced to place "all their eggs in one basket" as against the principles of the open market economy.

The dynamics of small cardamom trade in the global market place has evolved with time and to remain competitive in the global markets, there is a need to promote free trade of this commodity and device alternate channels for the domestic marketing of small cardamom along with removal of the rules which restrict the domestic marketing and free sale of small cardamom. The Bill, therefore, seeks to omit sections 16 and 28 of the Spices Board Act, 1986 with a view to do away with the penal provision for contravening the provisions of section 16 of the Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In India, women are so deeply engrossed in family affairs and burdened with such heavy domestic responsibilities that in spite of their capabilities, education and aptitude, most of them are unable to enter into Government services on time.

Women have only marginal representation in services connected with the affairs of the Union. Even though they are capable of efficiently carrying out various responsibilities connected with the assignments, they do not fulfil the requisite qualifications, experience and other conditions of eligibility attached to that post or assignment.

In order to ensure that women get due representation in Government services, it is necessary to reserve thirty-three per cent. of all posts and services under the Central Government, including public sector undertakings and enterprises, for women by providing them relaxation in matters of age limit, requisite educational qualifications, experience and other conditions of eligibility.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The population explosion in the country is posing a serious threat and it is a great hindrance in the development of the country. The per-capita income in the country is among the lowest in the world despite the huge increase in GNP/GDP. We are not able to exploit the benefit of the latest technologies in various fields due to rise in population. Population explosion results in lack of food, water and other facilities including medical facilities for the general public. Our neighboring country China has become very successful in controlling the population by adopting stringent measures, which proves the fact beyond doubt that without penal measures the population in the country cannot be controlled.

This Bill aims to achieve the above objective.

It is estimated that a sum of rupees five hundred crore will be involved as recurring expenditure per annum from the Consolidated Fund of India.

No non-recurring expenditure is likely to be involved.

BILL No. 113 OF 2011

A Bill further to amend the Right to Information Act, 2005.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title
and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Right to Information (Amendment) Act, 2011.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Amendment
of section 7.

2. In section 7 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after sub-section (6), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:

22 of 2005

"Provided that where such information is provided free of charge, the cost of providing the information shall be borne by the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, in each public authority.".

3. In section 20 of the principal Act, after sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

of section 20.

"(1A) Where the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission, as the case may be, at the time of deciding any complaint or appeal, imposes penalty on the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, under sub-section (1), such part of the penalty as may be determined by the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission, as the case may be, shall be given to the appellant as compensation.".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Right to Information Act which was enacted in 2005 has proved to be very effective in ensuring access of the common man to information on various aspects of public authority. It has also effectively enhanced public awareness. However, as per experience gained so far, the citizens are facing some problems in accessing information as certain sections/sub-sections of the Act are flexible. There is no control over the faulty as well as unjust decisions of the first Appellate Authority. There is also no provision for compensation/indemnity to the aggrieved person requesting for information. Moreover, in the event of providing information free of charge, the authorities have to bear the expenses themselves.

Therefore, the Bill seeks to amend the Right to Information Act, 2005 in order to enable the citizens to access information smoothly.

Hence, this Bill.

49 of 1988.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act was enacted to provide employment for at least one hundred days during lean season to the landless workers and small farming families of rural areas in order to protect their livelihood. But the scene which appears before us since the commencement of the schemes launched under this Act about five and a half years ago, narrates a different story which is full of corruption, and financial irregularities, collusion and arbitrary acts. The representatives of the people occupying higher positions in the Government also acknowledge the fact that the corruption in the schemes tantamount to grave injustice to poor in the country. The response of the judiciary is that the funds earmarked under the schemes are not reaching the intended persons. In order to make the schemes corruption free, it is necessary to amend this Act. For this purpose, the responsibility of the public servants should mandatorily be fixed at district, block and panchayat levels. In order to curb corruption penalties should be imposed on the public servants who fail to discharge their responsibilities. The penal provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 should be extended to cover the persons who commit offences under the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, 2005 in order to ensure implementation of the schemes under this Act in a transparent manner.

Hence this Bill.

BILL NO. 21 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 2012.

Amendment
of section 7.

2. In the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in section 7, for the words "shall be punishable with imprisonment which shall be not less than six months but which may extend to five years", the words "shall be punishable with imprisonment which shall be not less than three years but which may extend to seven years" shall be substituted.

49 of 1988.

3. In section 17 of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:—

of section 17.

"Provided also that a police officer investigating into an offence referred to in clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall compulsorily inquire into and, as far as possible, find out the sources of and the manner of acquiring the pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to the known sources of income of a public servant and the extent of role of other public servants in commission of such offence.".

4. In section 19 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:—

of section 19.

"Provided that where a decision regarding granting or withholding the previous sanction is not taken within a period of four months from the date of seeking previous sanction, the previous sanction shall, after the expiry of the said period, be deemed to have been given by the Central Government or the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be.".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

At present, corruption is the biggest problem afflicting our country. It is difficult to assess the extent of damage that corruption has done to our country. Corruption devalues human rights and hampers growth. It is urgently required to put in place the strongest possible laws to check corruption. At the same time, it is also equally important that these laws are implemented in an effective manner. Increase in quantum of punishment to and fine on people involved in corruption will be a step in that direction.

In various raids conducted during the past few months, some public servants including those belonging to group 'C' and 'D' categories have been found to have amassed crores of rupees which is beyond their known sources of income. These assets are alleged to have been acquired through illegal gratifications. Thus, a provision should be made in the Act to find out how and from where such assets were acquired by the public servants. Obtaining prior sanction from the competent authority to initiate the process of prosecution against public servants accused of corruption is a major stumbling block. There is a popular perception in the country that no serious and meaningful effort is being made to prevent corruption. It is therefore, necessary that the process of sanctioning prosecution should be completed within a stipulated time frame.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Cotton is an important cash crop in our country. It is extensively used in textile and other industries. In fact, cotton fulfils one of the basic requirements of human beings, i.e., clothing. Lakhs of persons are involved either directly or indirectly in this industry. Finished garments are also exported to many countries, thereby earning considerable foreign exchange for the country.

However, in recent times, many cotton growers in the States of Maharashtra and Andhra Pradesh and other parts of the country have committed suicide due to faulty policy of the Government. Minimum Support Price of cotton is very low and a cotton grower has to bear heavy loss and thereby incurs heavy liability. He is not allowed to export the produce due to restrictions imposed by the Government. The Government allows indiscriminate export of other products ignoring domestic requirements, but in the case of cotton, export is banned. If the ban on export of cotton is lifted, cotton growers will get good price of their produce. Cotton and its products used to be important export items of our country till recently, but today China and some other countries have surpassed our country because of the assistance and facilitations of the Governments of those countries.

The Bill seeks to provide Minimum Support Price to cotton growers for their produce and also to provide certain welfare measures for cotton growers in the country.

Hence this Bill.

It is estimated that an annual recurring expenditure of about rupees ten thousand crore is likely to be involved.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees five hundred crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

India is the largest democracy in the world. It has a strong Parliamentary System. Since 1951, free and fair elections to the Houses of Parliament, State Legislatures and local bodies have been held at regular intervals. Indian elections are a benchmark for many other countries.

At present a candidate is declared as elected even if he secures one vote more than the votes polled to his nearest candidate. Though he has won the seat, yet he may not have the support of even half of the electors. In the true sense, he is not representing the constituency from which he has been elected.

The percentage of votes polled at every election is decreasing which shows that people are not willing to participate in the election process. Sometimes in some of the constituencies, as low as thirty per cent. of the total votes are polled.

Therefore, it is proposed to make voting compulsory so that the people can participate in a large number. It is also proposed to provide certain incentives to those voters who exercise their right to vote in elections to the House of the People or State Legislatures.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for setting up of adequate number of polling booths in every constituency during election. Clause 4 provides for certain facilities to those voters who cast their votes at an election. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that an annual recurring expenditure of about rupees two hundred crore is likely to be involved.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees one hundred crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 6 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. Since the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

Survey of district affected by natural calamity.

Payment of compensation to farmers by insurance companies.

Central Government to issue directives to insurance companies.

Act not to be in derogation of other laws.

Power to make rules.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Crops are affected by natural calamities very often. Every year, the standing crops are destroyed due to either drought or heavy floods and farmers suffer in silence. Presently, there is drought like situation in several parts of the country.

It is true that we have crop insurance scheme for farmers but it does not cover all types of crops against all natural calamities. The insurance coverage is not comprehensive as it is based on premium amount and many factors are not taken into account while determining the loss suffered by farmers. Moreover, the crop insurance is not a statutory mechanism.

In view of the above, it is proposed to put in a place a permanent statutory mechanism to ensure that the farmers get their due compensation in the event of natural calamities.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The incidents of terror attacks are increasing in many parts of the country. Hundreds of innocent persons are being killed in such terrorist attacks. Their lives are shattered as they become permanently disabled or die during such attacks. The condition of deceased families is miserable as adequate compensation has not been provided to them by the Government. Therefore, it is necessary that the Central Government should come forward to pay compensation and provide certain other measures for the welfare of victims of terror attacks.

Hence this Bill.

BILL NO. 123 OF 2012*A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.*BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—*Short title.*1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012.*Amendment of the Eighth
Schedule.2. In the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution, existing entries 4 to 22 shall be renumbered as entries 5 to 23, respectively, and before entry 5 as so renumbered, the following entry shall be inserted, namely:—"4. Bundeli."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Ours is a multi-lingual country. In the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution of India, twenty-two languages, being spoken and written by our citizens, have been recognised as national languages. These languages represent the culture of the particular regions. A person learns the maximum things only through the medium of his mother tongue. Language is the light of wisdom. However, it is unfortunate that Bundeli language spoken by crores of people in Madhya Pradesh and Bundelkhand region of Uttar Pradesh has not yet been included in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution. Bundeli language is struggling hard to maintain its existence and dignity.

The prosperity of a society or a country is distinguished by the literature composed in its own language. Keeping this viewpoint in mind, if one goes through the history of Bundeli language, it can be noticed that the epic 'Alhkhand' was written in Bundeli by the great poet Jagnik. It is believed that with the advent of chandeli period, inception of Bundeli took place. It means Bundeli language existed in spoken and written form even two thousand years ago. Ramcharitmanas written by Tulsidas is full of Bundeli words. Stone inscriptions, invoices, correspondences, certificates and monarchical decrees have also been prepared in Bundeli. The Bundeli language has its specific contribution in Indian literature, history and in development of life-style. Besides abundant literature, Bundeli language is also the voice of expression of our glorious culture.

Bundeli is the mother tongue of a large Bundelkhand region spread over Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh. There are about five crore Bundeli speaking people in Sagar, Jabalpur, Gwalior, Hoshangabad and Bhopal divisions including bordering districts of Uttar Pradesh covering about 187934 square kilometres area. On 24th February, 2012 Legislative Assembly of Madhya Pradesh, after passing an unofficial resolution unanimously, sent a request to the Government of India for including Bundeli language in the Eighth Schedule.

Therefore, keeping in view the sentiments of the people of Bundelkhand region spread over a large area, Bundeli language should be accorded the status and honour of national language by including it in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution.

With the inclusion of Bundeli language in the Eighth Schedule, the folk dances, folk songs, folk customs and other cultural heritage along with the Bundeli language can be saved from getting extinct.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The economic disparity amongst various regions in the country has not only persisted but has also increased since the last six decades of independence. This disparity has resulted in extreme poverty, hunger and backwardness. Even the Constitutional obligations set forth by the founding fathers of the Constitution are yet to be fulfilled. Article 371 of the Constitution provides for special provisions for the development of Maharashtra and Gujarat but the Vidarbha, Marathwada, Saurashtra and Kutch regions of these States are still the most backward regions. Non-development of the Vidarbha region has resulted in the demand for a separate State which shows the frustration of the people of the region.

Development of such regions should be our prime concern. Special steps should be taken at the National and State levels to secure rapid and accelerated development of the poverty stricken and backward regions in the areas of education, economy, agriculture and other fields to bring them at par with other developed regions of the country. This may be achieved by establishing an autonomous Authority for the purpose.

Hence this Bill.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117(3) OF THE CONSTITUTION

[Copy of letter No. H-11016/18/2012-MLP dated 14 May, 2012 from Dr. Ashwani Kumar, Minister of State in the Ministry of Planning; Minister of State in the Ministry of Science and Technology and Minister of State in the Ministry of Earth Sciences to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha].

The President, having been informed of the subject-matter of the Poverty Stricken and Backward Regions (Development) Bill, 2012 by Dr. Mahendrasinh P. Chauhan, Member of Parliament, has recommended the consideration of the Bill by Lok Sabha under article 117(3) of the Constitution.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 4 of the Bill provides for the establishment of a Poverty Stricken and Backward Regions Development Authority. Clause 7 provides for a Secretariat with such number of officers and employees for the Authority as may be prescribed. Clause 8 provides that the Central Government shall provide adequate funds to the Authority. Clause 9 provides that the Authority shall take steps to encourage rapid and accelerated development of poverty stricken and backward regions of the country. The Bill, therefore, if enacted and brought into operation will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a recurring expenditure to the tune of rupees one thousand crore will be involved per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure to the tune of rupees one hundred crore will also be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 13 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

BILL NO. 69 OF 2012

A Bill to provide for the establishment of a permanent Bench of the High Court of Kerala at Thiruvananthapuram.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the High Court of Kerala (Establishment of a Permanent Bench at Thiruvananthapuram) Act, 2012.

2. There shall be established a permanent Bench of the High Court of Kerala at Thiruvananthapuram and such Judges of the High Court of Kerala, being not less than five in number, as the Chief Justice of that High Court may from time to time nominate, shall sit at Thiruvananthapuram in order to exercise the jurisdiction and power for the time being vested in that High Court in respect of cases arising in the districts of Thiruvananthapuram, Kollam, Alappuzha and Pathanamthitta.

Establishment of a Permanent
Bench of the High Court of
Kerala at Thiruvanan-thapuram.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The High Court of Kerala was functioning at Thiruvananthapuram, even after the reorganisation of States of Indian Union. But later the High Court was shifted to Ernakulam.

Since then, there is a long pending demand for the establishment of a Bench of High Court at Thiruvananthapuram.

The people from Thiruvananthapuram, Kollam, Alappuzha and Pathanamthitta districts will benefit a lot, if a High Court Bench is established at Thiruvananthapuram. Besides, in a large number of cases, the Government of Kerala, its various departments or the Public Sector Undertakings and autonomous bodies under it happen to be a party. If a permanent Bench of the Kerala High Court starts functioning at the State Capital, it will also reduce unnecessary expenditure from the public exchequer as well of the litigants. It will also ensure speedy justice.

It may not be out of place to mention here that the State Administrative Tribunal and the Central Bureau of Investigation courts are also functioning at Thiruvananthapuram.

Hence, establishment of a permanent Bench of High Court of Kerala at Thiruvananthapuram will go a long way in fulfilling the aspiration of the persons residing in nearby districts of Thiruvananthapuram in Kerala.

CHAPTER VI

MISCELLANEOUS

Power to make rules.

19. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both the Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

India's rapid economic growth and its efforts for holistic development need should not be in conflict with an ecologically sustainable development, India is the fifth largest emitter of green house gases in the world quantity wise, although, India's per capita emissions are still substantially below the world average per capita emission. Hence, it is important for India to take a proactive step in order to mitigate the emissions and to improve energy efficiency.

India has been identified as a key player at the international climate change negotiations. Hence, taking higher caps on emissions domestically (though without any legally binding international agreement) would set India as an example for other countries, thereby, inducing the other countries to take similar steps for a better global environment.

Further, although there are multiple laws for mitigating emissions from various sectors, there is no one comprehensive law which clearly defines the emission reduction targets, provides steps to be taken for reducing the emissions and sets a clear cut time line. Even the National Action Plan on Climate Change doesn't suffice. Therefore, there is a need for establishment of proper institutional framework for implementation and monitoring of the various existing missions and to take up new challenges.

Climate change is not the concern of just the Ministry of Environment and Forests but of each and every Ministry. It is the duty of the Government to integrate and coordinate the efforts of the various Ministries and properly channelize them to attain the ultimate target of reducing Green House Gas emissions and to contribute India's part in fighting the global warming and other climate Change phenomena. This Bill has been proposed to address the above mentioned issues.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 11 of the Bill provides that the Central Government shall constitute a National Committee on Climate Change for the purpose of advising the Government on matters related to climate change. Clause 12 provides for appointment of Chairperson and members of the Committee and also salaries and allowances payable to them. Clause 17 provides for the establishment of a Carbon Trading Authority for the purpose of formulating the Carbon Trading Scheme.

At this stage, it is not possible to give the exact amount to be incurred on this account. However, the expenditure, whether recurring or non-recurring, will be met out of the Consolidated Fund of India. It is expected that a recurring expenditure of about rupees one thousand crore will be involved annually.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees Five hundred crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 19 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

BILL NO. 71 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012.

Amendment
of article 25.

2. In article 25 of the Constitution,—

(i) in clause (2), for sub-clause (b), the following sub-clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(b) providing for social welfare and reform or the throwing open of Hindu, Sikh, Jaina or Buddhist religious institutions of a public character to all classes and sections of these religions.".

(ii) Explanation II shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Clause (1) of article 25 of the Constitution provides to all persons freedom of conscience and the right to freely profess, practice and propagate religion subject to public order, morality and health.

Sub-clause (b) of clause (2) of article 25 provides that nothing in that article shall affect the operation of any existing law or prevent the State from making any law providing for social welfare and reform or the throwing open of Hindu religious institutions of a public character to all classes and sections of Hindus. Explanation II to that article provides that the reference to Hindus in sub-clause (b) of clause (2) shall be construed as including a reference to persons professing the Sikh, Jaina and Buddhist religions, and the reference to Hindu religious institutions shall be construed accordingly. This type of drafting of sub-clause (b) of clause (2) of article 25 read with Explanation II tends to ignore the separate and distinct identities of Sikh, Jaina and Buddhist religions. Rather, it shows that these religions are either part of Hindu religion or associated with it, which has resulted in avoidable confusion about the independent identity of these religions.

This matter was also taken up by the National Commission to Review the working of the Constitution. The Commission, in its report, has recommended that Explanation II to article 25 be omitted and sub-clause (b) of clause (2) of that article be rephrased with a view to distinctively refer to Sikh, Jaina and Buddhist religions.

The present Bill proposes to amend article 25 of the Constitution with a view to distinctively referring to Sikh, Jaina and Buddhist religions along with Hindu religion.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

About twenty-seven per cent. of population in India is living below poverty line. When we look into the matter of deprivation of rights of people due to poverty, the picture that emerges is not satisfactory. Poverty compels men and women to lead a miserable financial and social life due to which they have to face hunger and illness. Their income is meagre and they have to struggle for their existence. It is now an established fact that people belonging to reserved categories have made progress on the basis of caste based reservation. Therefore, it is rational to provide reservation in posts and services to persons who are living below poverty line as a method to enable them to have a better standard of living.

We have to understand that in the case of appointments, reservation is not discrimination or a negative approach, rather it is beneficial, positive and necessary step for social and economic upliftment of neglected people facing starvation for a long time. In the present caste-based reservation system, the beneficiaries belong to middle or upper class families within that community. The extremely poor persons in the society have rarely benefited from it. Till date, a very small proportion of people living below poverty line have received the benefit of reservation.

To overcome the problems being faced by the persons living below poverty line, it is necessary that special provision is made for providing reservation in posts and services to such persons.

Hence this Bill!

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Country is currently going through a phase of crisis in the power sector. Almost all sectors of the economy are suffering due to the shortage of power in the country. Persons working in the fields of industry, agriculture, health, business, education are facing hardships on account of shortage of power in the country. New technologies are being developed to overcome the shortage of power. Solar energy is one such technology. Generation of solar energy has now become easier and more cost effective. Nowadays, the cost of power based on solar energy comes to fifteen rupees per unit but with improvement in technology it is likely to come down to four rupees per unit. Power is essential to build infrastructure in the country. It is necessary to promote alternate sources of energy because of paucity of coal and pollution caused by atomic energy. In view of growing concern regarding global warming, we can increase the generation of solar energy to meet our energy needs on the basis of resources available locally. Sunshine is available in our country for 250 days out of 365 days. Desert areas and wasteland in our country have the potential of large scale generation of solar energy through solar energy projects. Government needs to take appropriate steps for it. Today, generation of solar energy and manufacturing of associated equipments are expensive. Intervention by the Government is required to make solar energy a viable alternative to other sources of energy. Intervention may be in the form of promoting research in the field of solar energy, better marketing and promoting its utilization especially in commercial establishments.

The Bill seeks to provide for legislative framework to promote the use of solar energy in residential, industrial, agriculture sectors including in Government and private establishments. Therefore, it is proposed to constitute an Authority to promote generation and utilization of solar energy in the country.

Hence this Bill.

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for the Constitution of National Solar Energy Authority. Clause 4 provides for composition of the Authority. Clause 5 provides for certain functions of the Authority. Clause 8 provides that the Central Government shall provide adequate funds to the Authority. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that an annual recurring expenditure of rupees ten thousand crore is likely to be incurred.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees two thousand crore is also likely to be involved.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The presence of naxals, maoists and anti-social elements is constantly on the rise in various parts of the country. In a number of States, there is complete disruption of administrative work due to naxal activities, who are waging war by using arms and ammunitions against the State. Almost all areas affected by naxal activity are covered with dense forests and are located far away from the main areas. All such areas are backward and poor. There is an urgent need to take effective steps to bring these socially, economically and educationally backward areas into the mainstream by taking steps for their development.

It may not be correct to consider the naxalite problem as purely a problem caused by social and economic backwardness. Naxalites are trying to impose their ideology on the people by taking advantage of the backwardness and inaccessibility of the areas in which they operate. Elected representatives of local bodies from the naxal affected areas are resigning their offices due to increasing terror of the naxalites. This is endangering democratic set up in these States. As per the reports, as many as 6687 violent incidents have occurred in the country during the last four years resulting in death of 1856 civilians and of hundreds of policemen and security personnel. Given the severity of the problem, there is an urgent need for socio-economic development of the areas besides making the administration more effective. The naxal affected States are rich not only in forests but also in precious minerals. Therefore, formulation and implementation of schemes for development of infrastructure, industries, education, health and supply of safe drinking water is the need of the hour.

The Bill proposes to set up a Naxal Affected States Development Council to focus on all-round development of the naxal affected States. The setting up of such a council will go a long way in ensuring development of naxal affected States and as a result, the people living in naxal affected States will be free from fear and enjoy the fruits of social, economic and educational development.

Hence this Bill.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 9 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules to be made relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

BILL No. 79 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Protection of Human Rights (Amendment) Act, 2012.	Short title.
2. In section 2 of the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in sub-section (1), clause (a) shall be omitted.	Amendment of section 2
3. Section 19 of the principal Act shall be omitted.	Omission of section 19

Substitution of new section
for section
30.

Human Rights
Courts.

4. For section 30 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"30. For the purpose of providing speedy trial of offences arising out of violation of human rights, the State Government shall, with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court, by notification, set up for each district a special court to be a Human Rights Court to try the said offences."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The protection of Human Rights Act, 1993, is a landmark legislation in the field of human rights. The Act, no doubt, meets the demand of the present times and takes care of all kinds of violations of human rights. However, there are two serious shortcomings in this Act which may render it less effective than what it was intended to be. The first shortcoming is the special procedure to be followed by the Commission in dealing with complaints of human rights violations by members of the armed forces under section 19 of the Act. The Commission, as such, has no authority to investigate or try the offences committed by the members of the armed forces. Since the members of the armed forces are likely to become target of malicious attack by vested interests and since the special procedure prescribed for members of armed forces is, in essence, against the spirit of this legislation, it would be proper that armed forces are also brought under the jurisdiction of the Commission and the special procedure with respect to armed forces be dispensed with.

The second shortcoming is that of the discretionary provision of setting up of special courts for trying the offences under this law. Since these offences are being treated on a special footing, the instrumentality of ordinary courts will be ineffective and time-consuming and hence would defeat the very object of the law. Therefore, it has been proposed in the Bill to make it obligatory on the part of the State Governments to set up special courts for each district for speedy trial of offences arising out of violations of human rights.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 4 of the Bill provides that every State Government shall, with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court, by notification, set up special courts in each district for speedy trial of offences arising out of violation of human rights. The setting up of special Courts in Union territories will involve expenditure out of the Consolidated Fund of India. As far as States are concerned, the expenditure involved for setting up of special Courts shall be borne out of the Consolidated Funds of the respective States. However, the Central Government may have to assist the State Governments in setting up of special Courts.

The Bill, therefore, if enacted, will involve expenditure out of the Consolidated Fund of India. It is likely to involve a recurring expenditure of about rupees twenty five lakh per annum.

It is also likely to involve a non-recurring expenditure of about rupees ten lakh from the Consolidated Fund of India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Sanskrit language represents the soul of India. It has been the vehicle of Indian thoughts for millions. Sanskrit contains literature of exemplary value and the finest Indian minds found the expression in it.

It is indeed very sad that such a language has suffered utter neglect. Although, it is included in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution, enough has not been done to promote it. In a situation where the new generation is running away from its own roots and has developed a contempt for the cultural traditions of our country, the importance of teaching Sanskrit becomes a matter of crucial importance. The time has come when we must make sincere efforts to make the new generation aware of the great traditions of India. Teaching of Sanskrit in schools will enable our children to identify themselves with noble traditions and thoughts of our country.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 5 of the Bill provides for appointment of Sanskrit language teachers in all schools. Clause 8 provides for payment of adequate funds to the States for carrying out the purposes of the Act. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a recurring expenditure of about rupees ten crore will be involved per annum from the Consolidated Fund of India.

No non-recurring expenditure is likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 10 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

BILL NO. 77 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012. Short title.
2. In article 58 of the Constitution, in clause (1), in sub-clause (a), for the word "citizen", the words "natural born citizen" shall be substituted. Amendment of article 58.
3. In article 66 of the Constitution, in clause (3), in sub-clause (a), for the word "citizen", the words "natural born citizen" shall be substituted. Amendment of article 66.
4. In article 75 of the Constitution, in clause (1), the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:— Amendment of article 75.

"Provided that no person shall be eligible to hold the office of the Prime Minister unless he is a natural born citizen of India."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The ongoing process of globalisation of the country's economy has enabled the global multinational corporations to establish a powerful presence in India. Some of these corporations have annual turnover which is almost one half of India's Gross National Product (GNP). Given the enormous role that money has come to play in the political life of the country, there will be temptations for these corporations to use the power of their money to influence political developments in India.

At the same time foreign print media has begun to make inroads into our country. Alongwith western electronic media, it has launched a cultural offensive with a view to influence the thinking of Indian people.

These developments are fraught with grave consequences for India's sovereignty. Sooner or later, these foreign economic and cultural interests can be expected to make efforts to influence India's decision makers to formulate policies which may not be in national interest.

India's citizenship laws enable foreign born persons to acquire Indian citizenship. The Constitution of India enables any Indian citizen to be the President, the Vice-President and the Prime Minister, unless he is otherwise debarred. In the changing global scenario, it will not be beyond the capacity of foreign interests to manipulate a situation to project a person who is not a natural born citizen of the country and whose patriotism may be in doubt.

The posts of the President, the Vice-President and the Prime Minister are not merely sensitive posts. They hold in their hands decision-making powers which can take the country to wars or make compromises on the nation's security. Any person whose patriotism is untested should not be trusted with the fate of one sixth of humanity. That is why, in the United States for instance, only a natural born citizen is eligible to be elected as the President.

This Bill seeks to amend the Constitution to make only natural born citizens of India eligible to be the President, the Vice-President and the Prime Minister.

Hence this Bill.

BILL NO. 76 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012.

Short title.

2. After article 30 of the Constitution, the following article shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new article 31.

"31. Every citizen who lives below poverty line shall have the right to—

Basic facilities to citizens living below poverty line.

(i) adequate health care;

(ii) shelter;

(iii) education upto the level of graduation;

- (iv) guaranteed employment; and
- (v) essential items of daily use at concessional rates.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this article,—

(i) "person living below poverty line" means such person whose monthly income from all sources is such as may be determined by the Union from time to time after taking into consideration all relevant factors as it may deem fit:

Provided that different criterion may be fixed for different classes of persons in various States and Union territories.

(ii) "guaranteed employment" means employment for a minimum period of 240 days in a year;

(iii) "essential items of daily use" includes fuel, items of groceries, vegetables, milk and other edible items necessary for a decent living.".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In our country a huge number of people are living below poverty line. Despite several measures to improve their lot, their standard of living has not shown any significant improvement. The people living below poverty line live in slums under miserable and unhygienic conditions. For want of adequate health care, many of them die in their early ages. They mostly remain illiterate. It is the duty of the Government to take care of those sections of the society. The people living below poverty line should be given some basic facilities in order to enable them to lead a reasonably decent life. Therefore, it is proposed to amend the Constitution with a view to making it mandatory on the part of the State to provide certain facilities to persons living below poverty line.

Hence this Bill.

schools.

Penalty.

Grants by the Central Government.

Act not in derogation of other laws.

Power to

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

While a large number of primary, middle and secondary schools have been established, the students, especially in big cities, have to face hardships in securing admission to senior secondary schools because, in most of the cases, the last attended school imparts education upto primary, middle or secondary level. Students are compelled to run to district education office, schools and other authorities to get recommendations or relevant certificates to fulfil the formalities for admission in senior secondary schools. In such a situation, it is quite natural that the children as well as parents have to suffer mental agony.

Therefore, it has become necessary in the public interest to provide for the establishment of schools imparting education from classes first to twelfth or upgrade the existing primary, middle or secondary level schools to senior secondary level.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for establishment of adequate number of schools or upgrade the existing primary, middle or secondary level schools upto senior secondary level. Clause 7 provides that the Central Government shall provide funds to the State Governments for establishment of schools. The expenditure in respect of the establishment of schools in Union territories would also be borne out of the Consolidated Fund of India. The Bill, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is likely to involve a recurring expenditure of about rupees fifty crore per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees seventy five crore is also likely to be involved.

A Bill to provide for the compulsory supply of electricity to metropolitan areas and for matters connected therewith.

(2) The quantum of electricity to be supplied to the metropolitan areas within the territorial jurisdiction of appropriate Government shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that in every metropolitan area, the supply of electricity to the citizens living below poverty line shall be at half of the normal rates for not less than three hours in a day.

Power to make rules.

4. (1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this Act by the Central Government shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both the Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

(3) Every rule made by the State Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the State Legislature.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

There is an acute shortage of electricity in metropolitan areas of the country. The citizens living in metropolitan areas have to face a lot of difficulties due to shortage of electricity. During summer, the situation becomes even worse. Due to non-availability of open spaces and parks near these metropolitan areas, the citizens living there feel suffocated during failure of power.

It is very well accepted that electricity is one of the basic needs of human beings. Therefore, denying the people of their essential requirement of power cannot be justified on any ground. Power outage for hours together, particularly during summer months, makes the life of the people living in metropolitan cities quite miserable. The recent collapse of northern power grid due to high demand and the outage it caused is a pertinent case in point.

It is, therefore, proposed to make the supply of electricity compulsory in the metropolitan cities located in the metropolitan areas of the country.

Hence this Bill.

NEW DELHI;
July 27, 2012.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides that the appropriate Government shall supply electricity to the citizens living below poverty line in the metropolitan cities for three hours a day at half of the normal rate. The expenditure relating to States shall be borne out of the Consolidated Funds of the respective States. However, the expenditure in respect of Union territories shall be borne out of the Consolidated Fund of India.

The Bill, therefore, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that an annual recurring expenditure of about rupees thirty crore will be involved.

A non-recurring expenditure of rupees five crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 4 of the Bill empowers the appropriate Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. The rules will relate to matters of detail only. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

BILL NO. 85 OF 2012*A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.*BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—*Short title.*1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012.

Amendment
of article
214.

2. In article 214 of the Constitution, the following proviso shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Provided that the Parliament may by law establish such number of permanent Benches of a High Court at such places in a State or a Union territory, as it may deem necessary, on the basis of area and population of that State or Union territory and the number of cases pending in the principal seat of the High Court concerned.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Our Constitution makes right to legal remedies a fundamental right of the citizens. But the huge number of cases pending in various courts especially High Courts is a matter of serious concern. Considering the huge geographical expanse of our country and the prevailing poverty, seeking legal remedy has become an expensive exercise. Time has come to deliver justice in an easy, quick and cost effective manner to the people. Providing speedy justice at low cost is all the more important for the people who live in remote areas lying far away from State capitals where principal seats of the most of the High Courts are located. Such a situation literally results in denial of justice to the poor persons who cannot afford to travel frequently to far off places in search of justice. The large volume of cases pending in the High Courts has resulted in delayed delivery of justice which amounts to denial of justice. Moreover, since most of the High Courts are located at State capitals, the advocates of a particular place create a monopoly for themselves charging exorbitant fees which are not within the means of poor persons and they are obliged to sell off their property in their quest of justice. If more benches of High Courts are established, it will serve many purposes including convenience and saving for the common man, less pendency of cases and speedy delivery of justice at low cost. This will help to mitigate the sufferings of the masses.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Due to lack of facilities and financial assistance, our young researchers and scientists are not able to do any research work or engage themselves in any project. They are lured by multinationals and foreign countries and as a result our country is not able to utilize their talent.

Therefore, it is proposed to encourage our researchers and scientists by giving them financial and other assistance to do their research work. It is accordingly proposed that the researchers shall be given interest free loan by the bank for their research work and during that period they will be provided with housing and stipend facilities. However, the researchers will have to submit their papers or project to the Government after the completion of their work so that the country can fully benefit from their work.

The Bill serves two purposes; on the one hand it helps our researchers to do their work peacefully and on the other it helps us to utilize their talent and benefit from the research work.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Majority of the students in our country are not able to pursue higher education due to poor financial condition of their parents. Although, students are brilliant in their studies and want to pursue higher education, poverty comes in the way of their pursuit.

Professional and technical colleges charge exorbitant fees for admission which the students cannot afford.

With a view to encouraging poor students to continue their education, it is proposed to provide loans on easy terms to them which can be repaid after they secure jobs.

Although several banks offer loans for continuing education, such schemes are not attractive and beyond the means of majority of the parents. Therefore, it is proposed to set up a Bank exclusively for the purpose of assisting the students by providing them loans for continuing higher education.

Hence this Bill.

BILL NO. 89 OF 2012*A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.*BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—*Short title.*1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012.*Amendment of the Eighth
Schedule.2. In the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution, the existing entries 4 to 22 shall be re-numbered as entries 5 to 23, respectively, and before entry 5 as so re-numbered, the following entry shall be inserted, namely:—"4. Chhattisgarhi."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Chhattisgarhi language, which is one of the formats of eastern Hindi language class, in its semi magadhi form of Indo-aryan language is not only being spoken, understood and used by the people in Chhattisgarh but also in other States of country. Chhattisgarh Legislative Assembly had unanimously recommended on 30 March, 2001 and 13 July, 2007 to include this language in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution. But till date, necessary action has not been taken in this regard.

Further, Chhattisgarh Legislative Assembly has unanimously passed the Chhattisgarh Official Language (Amendment) Bill, 2007 by which the Chhattisgarhi language has also been recognized as the official language in addition to Hindi in that State. The Bill was notified as an Act of the State on 11 July, 2008.

In view of the above, it is necessary that the Chhattisgarhi language is included in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution.

BILL NO. 108 OF 2012

A Bill to provide for the establishment of a permanent Bench of the High Court of Rajasthan at Bikaner.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the High Court of Rajasthan (Establishment of a Permanent Bench at Bikaner) Act, 2012.

Establishment of a Permanent Bench of the High Court of Rajasthan at Bikaner.

2. There shall be established a permanent Bench of the High Court of Rajasthan at Bikaner and such Judges of the High Court of Rajasthan, being not less than five in number, as the Chief Justice of that High Court may from time to time nominate, shall sit at Bikaner in order to exercise the jurisdiction and power for the time being vested in that High Court in respect of cases arising in the districts of Sri Ganganagar, Hanumangarh, Churu and Nagaur.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Since the time a Bench of the High Court of Rajasthan, which is functioning at Jodhpur, was established at Jaipur, there has been a demand for the establishment of a permanent Bench of the High Court at Bikaner.

Rajasthan is one of the largest States and Bikaner is a divisional headquarter which is situated in the western part of Rajasthan. The region is known as Thar desert of the western region of the country.

The number of pending cases of Bikaner division in the High Court are more than sixty per cent. of the total number of pending cases. Besides, in a large number of cases, the Government of Rajasthan, its various departments or the Public Sector Undertakings and autonomous bodies under it happen to be a party. Therefore, establishment of a permanent Bench at Bikaner will not only reduce unnecessary expenditure from the public exchequer but would also benefit the people from Bikaner, Sri Ganganagar, Hanumangarh and Nagaur districts.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

About seventy per cent. of the population of the country lives in villages out of which approximately ninety per cent. people are engaged in agricultural activities. The economic condition of farmers have remained more or less unchanged so, far. They are always trapped in the vicious cycle of debt and the debt burden passes on to their next generation. The farmers always live in penury and remain apprehensive of their future. Therefore, the Government should take the responsibility of providing them their minimum requirements so as to enable them to perform their agricultural activities. The farmers work not only for earning their livelihood but they also provide succour to the entire nation. Of late, the incidents of committing suicides by the debt ridden farmers have increased manifold. Such cases of suicides can be avoided by providing certain facilities to farmers. If the farmers are provided with agricultural inputs at reasonable rates, the agricultural production will increase manifold which will ultimately benefit not only the farmers but the whole nation. Besides, certain other welfare measures like insurance, health service and financial assistance to farmers will go a long way to alleviate their sufferings.

Therefore, the Bill seeks to provide certain basic facilities like compensation, insurance cover, health services to farmers and their family members. It also provides for supply of good quality seeds, pesticides, manure and fertilizers and uninterrupted power and water supply, etc. to farmers for agricultural activities at reasonable cost so that they may carry out agricultural activities in an efficient manner without any hurdle.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

There has been mushrooming growth of higher educational institutions in recent years especially, the technical and medical educational institutions.

There have been allegations that these educational institutions are resorting to unfair practices such as charging of capitation fee, demanding donations, not issuing receipt in respect of payments made by or on behalf of students, low quality delivery of education services, false claims of quality education through misleading advertisement, etc. There is no law to check the malpractices in such educational institutions. A mechanism to provide for speedy resolution of matters relating to malpractices in higher educational institutions is required to be in place in order to provide relief to the victims of such malpractices. The Bill, therefore, seeks to provide, inter alia, for—

- (1) banning of acts of ragging within or outside the educational institutions;
- (2) prohibition of capitation fee and unfair practices by educational institutions; and
- (3) constitution of redressal committee for early disposal of complaints.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Tobacco use is responsible for nearly six million deaths every year across the world. If the use of tobacco remains unchecked, this number is likely to cross eight million by the year 2030. These deaths are an outcome of preventable causes. In our country itself, about one million people die every year due to use of tobacco. The Planning Commission puts the annual health cost of tobacco related diseases in India at approximately $6.5 billion.

World Health Organisation under its Framework Convention on Tobacco Control recommends norms for packaging and labeling of tobacco products. It is believed that such norms can help reduce the demand for tobacco products. Independent research studies conducted by other organizations have also concluded that removal of brand description from packages of cigarettes and other tobacco products reduce the appeal of smoking, especially among the youth.

In December 2012, Australia will become the first country to enforce 'plain packaging' norms for tobacco products. Plain packaging requires standardization of packages across brands. It restricts tobacco industry logos, brand imagery, colours and promotional text appearing on packages. Brand and product names are allowed only in a standard colour, position, font style and size in a pre-defined area on the package. These norms are expected to be a vital preventive public health measure in Australia.

This Bill amends the original Act to stipulate for plain packaging of tobacco products in India. It increases the size of the health warning and the accompanying graphic. It also prohibits advertisement of tobacco products in warehouses and shops at the point of sale. It is expected that these changes will help in reducing the consumption of tobacco and educate the citizenry about the ill-effects of tobacco use.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes have been, for centuries, the most neglected, marginalized and exploited. After independence, the polity of our nation has realized the importance of development of weaker sections specially the Scheduled Castes. Consequently, planned efforts have been made for their upliftment by the successive Governments. However, the benefits of affirmative action by the successive Governments for the welfare of persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes have reached only to a small section of these persons in the last sixty-four years. Majority of persons of these castes are facing a lot of problems due to poor living conditions in the hamlets where they live in. They do not have access to the basic necessities of life like potable water, sanitation, pucca houses, electricity etc., and are, therefore, unable to live a dignified life.

Therefore, it is proposed that all hamlets inhabited by the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes should be provided with all basic facilities to improve their standard of living.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for identification of hamlets inhabited by the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes. Clause 4 provides that the Central Government shall provide adequate funds to the State Governments for providing certain basic facilities to the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and living in hamlets. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a sum of rupees five thousand crore would be involved as recurring expenditure per annum.

A sum of rupees ten thousand crore would be involved as a non-recurring expenditure.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 6 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

A considerable chunk of our society is living below poverty line. They are deprived of adequate access to the basic needs of life such as health, education, housing, food, security, employment, etc. These persons belong to vulnerable, disadvantaged and marginalised section of the society and are deprived of enjoying their basic rights. Ours is a welfare State. It is the duty of the welfare State to ensure overall development of all sections of society. Successive Governments have taken steps to address the grievances of persons living below poverty line from time to time. However, till date there has been no consensus on defining and measuring the poverty. Therefore, welfare measures to provide easy access to education, food, housing, security and employment to the persons belonging to economically weaker class of the society in a targeted manner are not being implemented effectively.

The Bill proposes to establish a Corporation to:—

- (i) identify the persons belonging to economically weaker class;
- (ii) maintain a register of persons belonging to economically weaker class;
- (iii) provide certain facilities like financial assistance, housing, educational loan, health care facilities to the persons belonging to the economically weaker class; and
- (iv) suggest measures to the Central Government for overall development of persons belonging to the economically weaker class.

The Bill also provides for reservation in posts and services under the State and in admission to educational institutions in favour of persons belonging to economically weaker class on the recommendations of the Corporation.

Hence this Bill.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for establishment of the Economically Weaker Class Corporation. Clause 4 provides for constitution of Fund with an initial corpus of rupees five thousand crore and it also provides for supply of adequate funds by the Central Government from time to time for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Clause 5 provides for identification and maintaining of a register of families belonging to economically weaker class. It also provides for certain facilities like free education to the children, opportunities for employment and self-employment, financial assistance, educational loans at subsidised rates of interest, housing, etc. to the persons belonging to the economically weaker sections. Clause 6 provides for implementation of the recommendations of corporation by the Central Government. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a recurring expenditure of about rupees ten thousand crore will be involved per annum.

A non-recurring expenditure of about rupees six thousand crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 9 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

BILL No. 121 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Amendment Act, 2012.

Short title and commencement.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Amendment
of section 2.

2. In section 2 of the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after sub-clause (vii) of clause (i), the following sub-clause shall be added, namely:—

"(viii) albinism oculocutaneous (surajmukhi);".

Amendment
of section 33.

3. In section 33 of the principal Act, —

(a) for the words "three per cent.", the words "five per cent." shall be substituted;

(b) for the brackets, figure and words "(iii) locomotor disability or cerebral palsy,", the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(iii) locomotor disability or cerebral palsy;

(iv) mental retardation;

(v) albinism oculocutaneous (surajmukhi),".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Persons with mental retardation are not insane persons. They can do simple repetitive jobs under sheltered conditions provided by the appropriate Government. Therefore, they need to be encouraged and given economic security by providing reservation to them in jobs under the State.

There are people who suffer from disease of albinism which is a genetic defect. People with oculocutaneous albinism have white or pink hair, skin and iris colour as well vision problem. But they are not given facilities like others who suffer from low vision or blindness.

The Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 provides for reservation of posts in Government jobs for persons with blindness or low vision, hearing impairment, locomotor disability or cerebral palsy. However, there is no provision for reservation of posts for persons suffering from mental retardation or "oculocutaneous albinism" also known as 'surajmukhi' in Hindi. The Bill, therefore, seeks to amend section 33 of the Act with a view to providing that one per cent. each of vacancies shall be reserved in every establishment for persons suffering from "mental retardation" and "albinism oculocutaneous".

BILL NO. 129 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 2012.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Substitution of new section for section 124A.

2. For section 124A of Indian Penal Code, 1860, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Advocating overthrow of Government by force or violence.

“124A. Whoever, knowingly or wilfully, by words, either spoken or written, or by signs, or by visible representation or otherwise, advocates the overthrow of the Government or an institution established by law, by the use of force or violence or by assassinating or kidnapping any employee of such Government or institution or any public representative or provokes another person to do such acts shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to seven years, or with fine or with both.

Explanation.—Mere criticism or comments expressing disapproval of the Government or any act of the Government shall not constitute an offence under this section.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The debate around section 124A of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (IPC) is not new. This section penalizes sedition and was first introduced by the then British colonial regime in the year 1870 to deal with people spreading disaffection against the Government. Mahatma Gandhi described it as the “prince among the political sections of the IPC designed to suppress the liberty of the citizen.” Gandhiji himself was charged with sedition many a times under this section. Other victims of this law include renowned nationalists like Bal Gangadhar Tilak and Annie Besant.

Several members of the Constituent Assembly,— in particular —K.M. Munshi and T.T. Krishnamachari had questioned the relevance of such a law in a modern democracy. Even Pandit Nehru had termed it as “highly objectionable and obnoxious”. However, section 124A not only remains in the statute book, but continues to be used regularly. There are several instances when this section has been misused by authorities and applied frequently against innocent civilians, activists, journalists and political opponents.

Recently, the arrest of anti-corruption activist and cartoonist Aseem Trivedi on charges of sedition for making caricatures of Parliament, Constitution and the national emblem created huge public outcry. It is important to note that this was not a one-off incident. Previously, the sedition law had been applied to civil rights activist Binayak Sen and writer Arundhati Roy.

This raises serious questions about the relevance of this law in a modern constitutional democracy. Mahatma Gandhi, during his trial in 1922 had said, “Affection cannot be manufactured or regulated by the law. If one has no affection for a person, one should be free to give the fullest expression to his disaffection, so long as he does not contemplate, promote or incite violence.” The Supreme Court has also taken a similar stand while evaluating the constitutional validity of this section in the Kedar Nath vs. State of Bihar case, wherein the Court clearly laid down that the section should be applicable only for acts that incite violence or public disorder. The problem thus lies at the lower courts and the investigating authorities that continuously disregard Supreme Court’s interpretation of the law.

If we compare the said provision in our statute book with other countries, we find that in most developed countries, the crime of sedition has either been abolished or narrowed down in their statute books. United Kingdom and New Zealand have abolished it. Australia has also narrowed it down considerably. It has been used rarely in the United States and the courts have given wide protection to persons giving political speech, except in cases where it leads to lawlessness. The offence of sedition is considered unnecessary and inappropriate in modern liberal democracies, where the right of the citizen to criticize and challenge Government structures and processes is well accepted.

Thus, this Bill seeks to replace section 124A of the Indian Penal Code with a new section that allows for exchange of ideas, however unpopular or radical they may be. It specifically excludes criticism of the Government from the ambit of the section. However, it imposes some reasonable restrictions on the exercise of this freedom by penalizing people who advocate the overthrow of Government by force or violence or by the assassination or kidnapping of Government employees or public representatives. The maximum punishment is also reduced from life imprisonment to seven years.

These changes are aimed at safeguarding the right of the citizens to freedom of expression, while at the same time ensuring that unfettered freedom of some does not lead to violence or disorder for others.

Hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In our country, the farmer and his family entirely depends on the crop he grows and reaps. The crop is the result of his hard work and his expectations are always for the remunerative prices so that he could repay the loans which he borrowed for growing agricultural produce and to meet social obligations and household expenditure. But unfortunately, it is an usual phenomenon that in the immediate post harvest period the prices of most of the agricultural produce decline very sharply and farmers are left high and dry and at the mercy of unscrupulous traders who exploit them to the maximum possible.

Similarly, it is now very common that whenever there is bumper crop of anything, be it foodgrains or vegetables, the prices of such items fall very steeply. For instance when there is bumper crop of any commodities, their prices fall to the extent that the growers have no choice but to throw them on the roadsides and it has been noticed that the farmers sometimes burn their sugarcanes on the fields. But even the Government does not come to their rescue. Hence, there is an urgent need to provide that Government should intervene at such times to protect the interests of the farmers.

The Agricultural Ministry of the Union Government fixes the minimum support prices of agricultural produce but generally such prices are not realistic ones and there has always been discontentment amongst the farmers regarding such prices because they remain far below the expectations of the farmers. It is, therefore, necessary to set up a statutory autonomous Agricultural Produce Price Fixation Board and including therein the representatives of the farmers and agricultural labourers to fix the remunerative prices for agricultural produce taking into consideration all the aspects. It will also be mandatory for the Government to purchase agricultural produce from the farmers through their agencies. It is felt that the guarantee of a minimum assured price will further give the requisite boost to our agriculture sector and our farmer will prosper which he really deserves.

Hence this Bill.

BILL No. 125 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1960.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Amendment) Act, 1960.

(2) It shall come into force on such date, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 38. 2. In section 38 of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1960, in sub-section (2), after clause (h), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(ha) ensuring that the number of animals to be transported in a vehicle is in proportion to the carrying capacity of the vehicle;”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Our Parliament had enacted a law—the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1960 to prevent cruel and ruthless treatment of animals. In pursuance of that Act, some norms were laid down for transporting animals from one place to another without hurting them. At the time of enactment of the said law, the carrying capacity and power of vehicles used for transporting animals was limited. Today vehicle technology has changed a lot. Vehicles with more loading capacity are available in the market. But the number of animals such as cows, buffaloes, bulls, sheep, goats, etc. that can be transported has been restricted under this law. The number of animals that can be transported in big trucks is also limited and that is the reason why vehicle owners also suffer economic loss. As the said provision of the above Act has become obsolete, it is necessary to amend it to bring it in sync with the necessity of present times. It will enable the transportation of animals as per the carrying/loading capacity of the vehicles.

Hence this Bill.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The proposed amendment in the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for transportation of animals in vehicles. The rules will relate to matters of detail only.

The delegation of Legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In our country even after more than sixty years of independence, most of the students belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and economically weaker class are not able to afford even their school education leave alone university level education. The poorest among them are not able to go even to primary schools and remain illiterate and thus continue to get exploited in the society. The Government provides free school education to them but that is not enough. After completion of school education when they go to the college or university, it is beyond their reach to pay either the tuition fee or the hostel charges. Medical and Engineering students have to stay in hostels which are very expensive and students belonging to these categories cannot afford cost of staying in the hostels. This compels even the brightest students among them to opt out from higher education. In some cases their tuition fee is exempted but that is not enough. Therefore, it is necessary that students belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Sehduled Tribes and economically weaker class are provided free education and hostel facilities to enable them to pursue their higher education. That is why late Shri Rajiv Gandhi in the election manifesto of the Indian National Congress for the 1991 General Elections had promised—“Guarantee of tuition fee and maintenance allowance to every SC/ST student admitted to any University for a maximum period of six years”. After coming back to power, the Government had included economically weaker class people in its welfare ambit. Thus, it will be appropriate to enlarge the scope of that promise to the electorate. This can be achieved by providing free educational and hostel facilities to students belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and economically weaker class.

Hence this Bill.

BILL No. 127 OF 2012

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-third year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2012.

Amendment
of article 130.

2. Article 130 of the Constitution shall be renumbered as clause (1) thereof and after clause (1), as so renumbered, the following clause shall be added, namely:—

"(2) There shall be established a permanent Bench of the Supreme Court at Chennai, consisting of such number of judges of the Supreme Court as the Chief Justice of India may from time to time determine, but not less than five in number, to exercise the powers and jurisdiction for the time being vested in the Supreme Court in respect of cases arising in the States of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Kerala and Tamil Nadu and the Union territory of Puducherry.".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Supreme Court, which is the apex Court of justice in the country, is located in Delhi. The litigants have to come to Delhi in connection with their cases in Supreme Court. A large number of people also have to come to Delhi in response to the summons of the Supreme Court.

India being such a vast country, all such visits to the Supreme Court from far off places exact a very high cost in terms of time and money from litigants. This is more so in case of people coming from southern India. From the administrative point of view also, serving of notices, paper work, postal exigencies in regard to distant places are leading to staggering of cases, postponement, ex parte decisions, etc. The location of the apex court in Delhi is one of the major reasons behind delays in delivery of justice.

Under these circumstances, creation of a Bench of the Supreme Court in southern India is the need of the hour.

Chennai, the cyber city of the nation, is ideally suited for the purpose as the infrastructure and other facilities are already available there. It is also well connected both within the region and with Delhi.

In case a Bench of the Supreme Court is set up in Chennai, it would not only save the time and money of the litigants but will also help in expeditious disposal of cases.

The Bill accordingly seeks to amend the Constitution of India.

Power to make rules.

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both the Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It is indeed a welcome step that educational loans are being given to students for pursuing higher education. Poor students, who could not earlier afford the cost of professional and higher education are also now in a position to pursue higher education because of education loan. However, the policy of giving of educational loan is deficient on many counts. It has no statutory backing or proper guidelines. Each bank has its own guidelines and fixes its own criteria for disbursing loan. Many banks often refuse the same on some silly and technical grounds. Guarantee and surety is always insisted upon before granting the loan. The rate of interest on such loan also varies from bank to bank. Students are harassed and have to run from pillar to post to get the loan disbursed. Students pursuing studies in private institutes and seeking admission in management quota are not given loan. Therefore, it is sought to ensure through the Bill that education loan should not be denied to any student. Any person who violates the guidelines framed for education loan shall be punished so that no bank dares to refuse loan to students.

Further, many students after completion of their course do not get jobs. Thus, they are not in a position to repay the loan taken. In such cases, a policy or scheme for waiving off loans should also be considered.

Hence this Bill.

NEW DELHI;
November 6, 2012.

R. THAMARAISELVAN

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for the framing of a scheme for providing educational loans to students. Clause 8 provides for framing of a scheme for waiving off educational loan if a student fails to secure any employment after completion of his course. The Bill, therefore, if enacted, will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India. It is estimated that a sum of rupees two hundred crore will be involved as a recurring expenditure per annum from the Consolidated Fund of India.

A non-recurring expenditure to the tune of rupees one hundred crore is also likely to be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 9 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. As the rules will relate to matters of detail only, the delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Despite all efforts made and welfare measures taken by the Central Government and the State Governments, the practice of begging continues unabated all over the country, especially in the metropolitan cities and urban areas. There are also organized gangs who exploit innocent children and force them into begging. Its not for the sustenance of these boys and girls but for gathering alms for the gang leaders. These gangs have made kidnapping children and forcing them into begging a business and thereby collect huge amount.

While the old and infirm beggars can be sent to destitute homes, the able-bodied beggars should be given education and training so that they can get gainful employment.

Therefore, it is high time that a law for prevention of begging is brought forward.

Hence this Bill.
